It is probable that Ontario's right to prohibit the liquor traffic will not be decided by the supreme court until May.

The petition for the release of McGreevey and Connolly will probably be acted upon at the next meeting of the cabinet. No doubt they will be released.

James and David Locheridge and John Lemon have been arrested at Brandon charged with making counterfeit money. They raised Dominion bills.

Le Monde, of Montreal, says that L. P. Pelletier, provincial secretary of Quebec, will take part in the Ontario elections in support of Mowat, and at the same time is trying to defeat Laurier in federal politics.

Erasmus Wiman of New York has been arrested on a charge of forgery amounting to $250,000. He has been committed to jail in default of $25,000 bail. The charge is made by R. G. Dunn in connection with the business of the firm of Dunn, Wiman & Co. at Ottawa, Ont.

RONN ALLEN is the publisher of Western Winks, a comic paper printed in Winnipeg. Ronn is a Mount Forest boy, who before he allowed his hair to grow long and bloomed forth as a humorist and comedian, wore with becoming modesty the ordinary name of John Allen. —Gaelic Herald.

D. McNICOL, general passenger agent of the C. P. R., has been enjoying a salary of $8,000 a year. In view of the hard times and consequent necessity of cutting down expenses generally in the case of the C. P. R., as well as of private individuals, Mr. McNICOL's salary has been reduced to $12,000 a year. So it is plain that the hard times reach everybody.

A FARMER of the Sturgeon settlement gives the following statement which has a pointed bearing on the question of freight rates. Last year he raised 3,000 bushels of oats, of which 2,500 was for sale. This amount of oats was worth $900 and would have occupied a month in hauling to market. Last summer he brought $900 worth of pork to town in just three loads.

A REPRESENTATIVE meeting of patrons of industry of St. Albert, Sturgeon, Poplar Lake and Clover Bar was held at Poplar Lake on Saturday, the 3rd instant, at which the education question was discussed. It was unanimously agreed that a committee of three be appointed consisting of M. McKinlay, D. Maloney and Geo. S. Long, who will make full enquiry and bring in measures for consideration at the next meeting, which will take place on the second Saturday in March. T. G. Hutchings president, M. McKinlay secretary.

CALGARY Herald: Among the passengers on Monday's train north were two families named Lonsdale, numbering eleven in all. They formerly lived in Manitoba but not finding things to their liking there, went to California two years ago. That period sufficed to assure them that life in the Union is not an unmitigated blessing, and are now about to settle in Alberta. They freely expressed their appreciation of the country and have temporarily settled at South Edmonton to look around them for suitable locations.

NINE parcels of land, quarter sections and half sections, have been sold on the P. pass. Chasse reserve, since February 1st. The price varies from $3.75 to $4.25 per acre.

THE following shipments have been made from Edmonton since February 1st: 3 cars oats to Calgary; 6 cars coal to Calgary; 1 car barley to Calgary; 1 car oats to Golden; 1 car timothy hay to Donald; 1 car oats to Vancouver.

THE meeting to organize a wool growers' association has been postponed until Saturday, March 3rd, at 2 p.m. in the council chamber Edmonton. A meeting of the agricultural society will be held on the same day and place.

A test of coal from H. Horton's White Star mine, Rabbit hill, will be made on tomorrow's train. A car load has been provided at the station for the purpose. The trial has been ordered by master mechanic Cross who is desirous of using Edmonton coal on this line if possible.

THE letter received by Mayor McCauley from Hon. J. A. Oulmet, minister of public works, regarding estimates for a bridge at Edmonton, states that the matter will be submitted to the privy council with the other estimates. It also conveys the information that the engineer's estimate of the cost of the bridge is $95,000, of which sum Mr. Oulmet understands the town is willing to subscribe $20,000.

THE new special tariff on grain, flour, oatmeal, millstuffs, flaxseed, oilseeds, vegetables, hay and straw in carloads from all points on the C. & E. line to Vancouver and New Westminster is 35 cents per 100 pounds, as against a former rate of 50c from Edmonton and 45c from Red Deer. The new rate does not affect points on the main line either east or west. It may be pointed out that Edmonton has profited more than any other point by the reduction, as the present rate is 15 cts better than the old rate from Edmonton and only 10 cts better than the old rate from Red Deer and MacLeod. This removes the special disadvantage which the old rate placed upon Edmonton.

JOSEPH Brunelle of Edmonton, proprietor of the Columbia hotel, is a G. A. R. man, having served in the United States army from 1861 to 1865, in the civil war and in the Minnesota Indian war. He was a member of company B, Hatch's battalion, Minnesota volunteer cavalry, and belonged to Lewis, McLean and Hamilton's post, No. 15, North Dakota department, G. A. R. Mr. Brunelle suggests that all soldiers who served in the civil war from 1861 to 1865 now residing in this district organize a G. A. R. post here, as has been done in Winnipeg, and that they meet for the purpose on March 27th next. As the G. A. R. men are all getting up in years, and have not seen each other for some time, it would be a pleasant meeting. He thinks that Canadians would not object to such a meeting as it would not in the slightest interfere with politics. Mr. Brunelle mentions as an instance of the good feeling shown by Canadians that when the United States troops at Pembina, North Dakota, were without food during the winter of 1866, Mr. Bannatyne of Fort Totten, and several others supplied their wants. The object of holding the meeting on the 27th would be to turn out on Decoration Day. Any one who intends being present on that occasion is requested to let Mr. Brunelle know, so that preparations may be made.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, FEBRUARY 22nd, 1894.

MARKET REPORTS.

The Winnipeg Commercial is a most valuable paper, not only for the amount of information it contains but for the general accuracy of that information. There is a matter, however, to which the BULLETIN begs to draw the attention of the Commercial in which the accuracy of that paper is open to question. It is in relation to the Vancouver market quotations for produce appearing from week to week in the Commercial, which are supposed to be specially compiled by an agent on the spot and therefore absolutely correct. Edmonton shippers have so far been unable to obtain quotations from Vancouver dealers measurably approaching the quotations of the Commercial. This has been particularly noticed in the case of oats. For instance the Commercial of February 12th contains a Vancouver quotation of February 6th which gives the price of oats as $34 per ton and of Manitoba oats as $34 a ton. (The difference between oats and Manitoba oats is not explained.) At the same time the best offer that shippers here can get from Vancouver dealers is $26 a ton for oats, accompanied by the cheering information that they expect shortly to be able to secure plenty of oats at the still lower rate of $20 a ton. The oats purchased by them at $26 a ton come from Spokane, Washington, and are landed at Vancouver, sacked and duty paid at $26 a ton now; and if the duty were removed could be landed at $20 a ton. Taking the Commercial's report it would be supposed that even Washington oats are worth $31 a ton, a difference of at least $5 a ton between the Commercial's figures and the actual price, or a difference of $8 a ton if Edmonton oats are equal to those of Manitoba—it being a well known fact that they are superior. Unless the Vancouver dealers are doing a strictly Jew business and do not offer a fair price to Edmonton shippers the Commercial must be quoting the price at which dealers sell oats in Vancouver and not the price at which they buy. The buying price is the price quoted for Manitoba and it should be quoted for British Columbia as well, or the explanation should be given that it is not the buying but the selling price.

If any question as to the usefulness of a board of trade, or the necessity for it, existed, the action taken by the council on Tuesday night on so many important matters would completely answer the question. There can be no doubt that the views of the business community of the district on the several questions of a traffic bridge, a new judicial district, a separate electoral district, railway freight rates, the promotion of immigration, the customs duties and the other like matters touched upon or to be dealt with hereafter cannot fail to have weight when brought to bear in the proper quarters and in a proper manner, as they can be through the organization now existing. No one can give people what they want unless they know what is wanted, and this they cannot know unless people agree on what they want and then give expression to their views. As before stated a board of trade is an advisory, rather than an executive body, and as such is supposed to be advisor in general on all commercial matters, or matters affecting the commerce or trade of the district. That there are abundance of such matters regarding which the executive bodies of the country will be glad to have the advice or suggestions of a properly constituted board of trade, there is no doubt. This being the case the importance of that body is clearly seen, and the desirability of having the commercial interests of the district as fully represented in it as possible; a representation not confined to the town of Edmonton but which should include the district at large.

BOARD OF TRADE.

The first meeting of the council of the Edmonton board of trade took place on Tuesday evening in the council chamber. The president in the chair.

It was decided that the president, vice president and secretary be a committee to revise the by-laws and report at the next meeting.

Also that the president, vice president and treasurer, and Messrs. F. Oliver, H. W. McKenney and J. H. Garipey be a committee with power to add to their number to draft a memorial to the Dominion government praying for the immediate fulfilment of their promise to build a traffic bridge across the North Saskatchewan at Edmonton.

Also that Messrs. N. D. Beck, S. S. Taylor and E. C. Emery be a committee to prepare a memorial to the proper authorities praying for the erection of Northern Alberta into a separate judicial and electoral district.

Also that the town council be requested to prepare an exhibit of the natural products of the district and display the same permanently in the town hall for the information of immigrants and other visitors.

Notice was given by Mr. Kirkpatrick of a resolution regarding the changing of the Edmonton, Ontario, post office, to prevent serious business complications.

The president and Mr. Lines were requested to prepare a resolution re freight rates, to be presented at next meeting.

The secretary was directed to procure and lay before next meeting information as to the customs regulations re settlers effects and stock coming from the United States, especially Washington Territory.

South Edmonton, Alberta.

I John Morris of White Mud, in the Rabbit hill settlement, in the district of Alberta, miner, being lessee of the coal on the southwest one quarter of section twenty-five, in township fifty-one, in range twenty-five, west of the fourth meridian in the aforesaid district of Alberta do hereby agree to assign all my rights and privileges, according to my lease from the Canadian Pacific railway company for the working of said coal, in consideration of the sum of twenty cents per ton for all coal mined and disposed of from the aforesaid 22nd day of January, A. D., 1894, until the expiration of my lease from the aforesaid railway company, to Henry Horton of South Edmonton, in the aforesaid district of Alberta, merchant.

In witness whereof I have hereunto affixed by hand and seal on the day first above mentioned.

Signed at South Edmonton, in the presence of
WILLIAM WILKIE } JOHN MORRIS.

EDMONTON

As seen by the Dundee, (Scotland), Courier's special commissioner, Mr. Andrew Osler and described in the issue of January 23rd:

We stayed four days at Edmonton, and every day we had a drive out, perhaps thirty miles to the country, taking a long detour and returning by a different trail, and every day journeying in a new direction. On the first morning we started north in the direction of Sturgeon river. A short distance from the town we met many Indians and half breeds. These were mostly all driving a pair of ponies or cayuses in four wheeled wagons, and had quantities of fruits picked on the prairie, and vegetables, which they would barter in the town for provisions. The half breeds mostly all farm small patches of land farther back in the country, and are said to raise good crops. The most of them are, however, rather negligent of their farms, and leave them for long intervals to go hunting for furs. All kinds of road vehicles, whether belonging to whites or reds, are four wheeled and drawn by two horses, the most of the roads, which at the best are mere Indian trails, not being practicable for one horse moving on them. These trails seldom get any making, and are only formed by the wheels of the vehicles and hoofs of the horses. Consequently there is a ridge between the tracks, on the top of which, if only one horse was used, he would have to walk, though the footing would be very awkward. But when two horses are used, each horse runs in the broad rut made by the wheels, which by much traffic is beaten hard and smooth, and makes a fairly good road. The rules of the road are different from those which obtain in this country, and, in meeting, drivers draw to the right-hand side. When driving mares have foals, the foals are allowed to accompany the machines, and it was no uncommon thing to see a couple of foals scampering alongside a machine in which the owners were driving to church or market.

On this journey we also met many wagons drawn with oxen, hauling firewood or hay to the town. These oxen were harnessed with collars much the same as horses, but few of them had bridles or even halters of any kind, a string merely being tied to the horn of the near ox. These oxen seemed to step along quite as nimbly as horses, and were hauling loads which I fear the horses of the country could not have moved. The horses are all of the light legged broncho description, and, although they are of various sizes, I saw none that could be called even medium heavyweights; nor do I think the heavy-weight draught horses of the old country would find much favor in the district. The work horses are required to move along at a much faster pace than at home, and because of that speed is considered a greater desideratum than power.

As showing how inexpensive horses are to raise, and how easily a man may increase his stock, and how safe a man's property is though not looked after, I may recite an instance. Mr. Anderson, crown timber agent at Edmonton, had a favorite driving mare which went lame, and was quite useless for work. Unwilling to destroy her, he let her out on the prairie, and heard no word of her for four years, fully believing she was dead. Shortly before I was there a distant rancher told Mr. Anderson that the mare was with him, and that she had three colts with her. Mr. Anderson would give no credit to the tale, and would not even put himself to the trouble of going to see, but his daughter, having more faith in the story, asked her father if he would make her a present of the old mare and her progeny, and undertook to inquire into the matter. To this proposal Mr. Anderson at once consented, and the young lady got her brother to go to ascertain. Sure enough it was the old mare, and the three colts were her own foals, which she had borne since last seen by the owner. The young man brought the quartette home with him and presented them to the young lady, and I had this story from the mouth of old Mr. Anderson himself.

For a good distance around Edmonton the land is thickly overgrown with low scrubby timber, mostly balm of gilead poplars, scarcely suitable for building purposes, but which is excellently adapted for fencing, and not at all difficult to clear off the ground. Great expanses of low willows occur every here and there, and even where these are pretty thick, and as high as almost to cover the horses, the breaking plough can be put in and works pretty well. The lands where these willows grow are generally considered the most valuable. In erecting fences no tools are needed but a good axe and an iron beaker for boring the holes in the ground for the uprights, no nails or hammer being necessary. The poplars are cut to about the length of four yards, and these form the bars for the fence. The two uprights at the ends of these bars are merely shoved into the holes made by the beaker, and the bars are wedged in between these with bands of willow. When five bars are used, which is often the case, this makes a capital fence, quite sufficient to keep back even the larger animals. Large open spaces occur every here and there between the wooded groves, where grass grows very rich and abundant, and which, unlike the grass on the plains farther south, is green and succulent. In these open spaces wild roses grow in great profusion, and the ground is literally carpeted with wild flowers of every hue. No prettier scene can be imagined than these prairies covered with a flow of richest blossom cultivated by the hand of nature. The most common flowers are golden rod, ox-eye daisy, sunflower, wild vetch, wild anemone, fireweed, wild sage, &c., and what delighted our Scottish eyes most of all, was the pretty Scottish bluebells which grew there in great plenty. Intermixed with buffalo grass, peavine, and other prairie grasses, these form a sward which cannot be surpassed for thickness, and so tall and luxuriant that a person has not a little difficulty in walking through it. This great luxuriance of vegetation growing year after year from the beginning of time, and fading and decaying where it grew, has formed a surface soil of vegetable mould of great thickness and richness, which nothing "on the top of arth" as the Yankees say, can surpass for crop growing purposes. Wild fruits are very abundant, strawberries being extra plentiful, in some places to such an extent that in walking along a person's boots are painted crimson, and his footsteps have the appearance of a trail of blood. Wild gooseberries are also plentiful, but very small, not above the size of our black currants. A most delicious berry called Saskatoon grows very abundantly on a bush about the size of our red currant bush, and there are other kinds of small fruit too numerous mention. We had brought lunch with us and held a picnic on the prairie, having a most sumptuous and delicious dessert of wild fruits, picked where we squatted.

News of Edmonton and surroundings up to hour of issue.

News of the world by telegraph up to day of issue and from two to five days ahead of any other paper reaching Edmonton.

Controlled only by the proprietor and therefore always ready and willing to speak out for the good of the town and district.

THE BULLETIN is read more generally throughout the Edmonton district than any other paper.

If you want to do business in the Edmonton district you can reach more of the people with a less expenditure of money through the advertising columns of the BULLETIN than by any other means.

Fair advertising rates charged, and like rates to all parties.

No advertising of a questionable nature admitted if its character is known.

THE BULLETIN Printing office is second to none in the Territories. Only first-class type, machinery and paper employed. Printing of all kinds done promptly, neatly and cheaply. Call and see samples of work, and get prices before ordering your printing elsewhere.

A newspaper is not a producing industry, but if properly conducted it assists and stimulates production and progress more than any other single agency of like cost. Money spent towards the support of a newspaper is almost entirely spent within the town in which the paper is published and is therefore not lost to the business of the town.

The local newspaper represents the district in which it is published to the outside world.

Support your home paper liberally if it deserves support, so that it can give the best possible impression of your town and district as a field for immigration and investment.

There is big money for a new town in having a live and interesting paper.

 mittee of health and relief for consideration.

 vertisement be placed in at least one eastern paper having a large circulation and also in the Edmonton Bulletin, calling the attention of capitalists to the splendid opening there is in Edmonton for a roller grist mill and woolen factories. Further that the council correspond with anyone making enquires; and further that councillors Strang

GENERAL NEWS.

Senator Sanford of Hamilton may be taken into the cabinet, and if so will contest
 Hamilton for the commons.

The assessed valuation of all real and personal property in North Dakota is $112-000,000. The total tax levy is $406,000 for the current year. The average price per acre assessed is $3.78. The total debt is $800,000.

Sir John Thompson officially declared to the Macdonald club in Ottawa on February 14th that the tariff would be maintained.
 That the national policy was not adopted
 soon enough and that if it were abandoned every manufacturer in the country would be closed up.

A storm occurred in Oklahoma in the days preceding February 14th. A family named Sears was frozen to death. And it is reported that a man killed his family of six children and then committed suicide rather than see them suffer. Twenty persons and 160 horses and cattle were frozen to death.

Calgary Herald: Commencing February 27, a special colonist train will leave Montreal, connecting with principal points in the east, each Tuesday, continuing through March and April. The object of running this train is to give colonists the opportunity of bringing personal effects with them to the west. A passenger coach will be attached to each train.

The question of law costs seems to be interesting many people just now. Recently a writer in the Calgary Herald showed that a suit for $95 which would cost some $16 in Quebec would cost over $40 in Alberta. The Winnipeg Tribune gives an instance in which the cost of collecting a debt of $60 in Manitoba was $51.35. Another case of $25 cost $24.15.

The election of a person to represent Whitewood, Assiniboia, in the Northwest assembly took place on February 16th. In Broadview and Whitewood, the two principal towns in the district the vote stood:
 Clementson 187, Potter 69, Clements 41, Summer 25. This election was the first in the Territories under the ballot system.
 Clementson was the Broadview candidate.

Medicine Hat Times: Sheep manager
 Rutherford, of Swift Current, was in town Saturday last. He says the company's sheep have done unusually well this winter.
 There has been no loss whatever, and all grades of animals are in fine condition.
 There is not even a suspicion of scab in his large band and as the range is completely isolated there is no danger of acquiring it by contagion.

Regina Standard: The new assessment ordinance which the town council, at its last regular meeting, decided to adopt has since been to them a source of much perplexity.
 It is almost universally admitted to be right in principle, but it is feared that its details are so imperfect as to render it unworkable.
 Others again just as strongly maintain that it is quite workable, and that the council should adhere to its former determination to give it a trial. We learn that the legal talent of the town is somewhat divided in opinion; we therefore reserve our verdict.
 But what we have heard and seen during the past few days fully sustains our prediction that the departure from the purely "single" tax system would give rise to complications.
